

opco

Nick Kelly

Current Position September 2001 to date OPCO Limited South Wales

Managing Director

Nick formed OPCO Limited in September 2001 employing key, senior personnel from the construction industry within South Wales and the West.

Experience 2000 - 2001 Brunswick Construction Limited South Wales

Managing Director

Nick Joined Brunswick Construction to lead a Management Buy Out of the Construction Division from the Brunswick Group prior to the administration of the Holding Company.

1988 - 2000 Balfour Beatty Construction Limited London

Construction Director – Southern Building Division

Responsible for Private Finance Initiative and Major Projects predominantly in Central London and the M4 Corridor.

Director responsible for London Region operations with a turnover of £90 million.

Major Projects included ABN Amro HQ (£65m), WLB HQ (£70m), UCLHP Project (£225m), Green Park, Reading (£70m).

Implemented training course for new recruits — speeding profitability.

Regional Manager South Wales & South West

Responsible for the procurement and safe and timely execution of a variety of industrial and commercial projects throughout the region.

Built client and supply chain base to establish regional business as dominant player in the region

Built business to turnover in excess of £30 million per annum.

Area Manager South Wales

Responsible for the procurement and safe and timely execution of a variety of industrial and commercial projects throughout the region.

Established area office and built turnover to £15 million within two years.

Project Manager Special Projects South Wales

Responsible for the procurement and safe and timely execution of the Ford Motor company's Zeta Engineering Facility – construction value of £56 million.

Education 1971 - 1975 Lancaster

Lancaster Polytechnic - BSc in Construction Management